

STEP LatAm - Mexico City / October 4-5, 2018

THESIS WRITING COMPETITION

2018 STEP LatAm Conference (Mexico)

Starting this year (2018), the STEP LatAm Conference is encouraging students and young professionals to write a scholarly thesis paper. Each year the paper will be on a current topic for advising families across borders in Latin America.

This year's topic will be:

Use of Trusts/Fideicomisos for Succession Planning in a LatAm Jurisdiction

Rules of participation are as follows:

- Applicants must be residents and/or citizens of Latin America;
- Applicants must be qualified full or part time students (not necessarily STEP members) and/or young professionals;
- Paper length - between 4,000 and 5,000 words; and
- Submission deadline: midnight, on or before, May 30, 2018

The winner will receive:

- Registration to the STEP LatAm Conference - Mexico City;
- Economy return flight to Mexico City (to be used for attendance at the conference); and
- Three nights of accommodation at the STEP LatAm Conference hotel (to be used for attendance at the conference)

Papers will be assessed by the STEP LatAm Conference Advisory Board, based on reasoning, presentation and content. Please send submissions to: awards@steplatamconference.com

All applicant papers will be made available to the 2018 STEP LatAm Conference delegates.

On behalf of,
STEP LatAm Conference Board

WHERE COMMON LAW AND CIVIL LAW CONVERGE
THE CROSS ROADS OF THE FUTURE

DONDE EL DERECHO ANGLOSAJÓN
Y EL DERECHO CIVIL CONVERGEN
LA ENCRUCIJADA DEL FUTURO